

Installation and commissioning of the Session Border Controllers was conducted over several days in the facilities of Portugal Telecom at Lisbon and Oporto. Intervention by CI engineers was crucial to the development of the project, receiving an official greeting from Genband www.genband.com www.telecom.pt