

This new certification is another step in the longstanding relationship between the two companies. Along the month of April were carried out by the technical staff of CI, the relevant certification courses IPO Contact Center. Which will be soon applied in specific projects already underway.

www.avaya.com